Whiston Action Group

WAG intends to hold another open evening at Whiston Village Hall in the middle of September October. Date to be available for the next issue.

Whilst nothing has formally been forthcoming concerning Moneystone Quarry it has been learnt that the SMDC planners and Laver Leisure have had discussions concerning the application that will be made for the construction works etc. for the site. At this time it is not known when that application will be submitted to SMDC.

Restoration work, or lack of it, is still being monitored.

Articles for next edition: - Sept/Oct

14th Aug at the latest please.

Village Hall Events

Thanks to all those who contributed to the car boot sale at the end of May which raised £495

Scrap Metal Day morning of Saturday 14th July
All sorts of metal accepted, but no fridges, TVs or microwaves please (not much metal). Collections of larger items can be arranged by calling James (07866 676547) or Carol (07990 876233).

Are you an online shopper? If you access your normal shopping sites via easyfundraising.co.uk you can nominate Whiston Village Hall as your charity. It costs you nothing, but helps the village hall do more for you.

Whiston Fun Day

Monday 27th August - Fun for all the family

Pub Night every Wednesday 7.30 to 11.00.
Join in table tennis, cards, dominoes and darts.

If you can help in any way with the running of the hall or in helping with the forthcoming events, please contact Steve Leaver on 07836 622442.

Grazing Required.

Dave and Sam Stones of Ross Road are seeking grazing for their horse, preferably as near to the village as possible but anywhere would really help. If you can help please contact Dave on 07967970133 or Sam on 07967107387.
